

Judge Marsh's Remote Appearance Policy for Felony Division

Pursuant to Fla. R. Crim. P. 3.116, Judge Marsh has implemented the following policy guidance for remote appearance in his courtroom.

Case Management Conferences – Defendants and/or Attorneys may appear via Zoom without prior motion or notification to the Court. The Court will have the following Zoom Meeting Room open for appearance:

Topic: Judge Marsh's Criminal Courtroom
Time: This is a recurring meeting Meet anytime

<https://zoom.us/j/97018398459>
Meeting ID: 970 1839 8459

OR

Dial from your telephone:
786-635-1003
970-183-98459
Meeting ID: 970 1839 8459

Pretrial Case Management – Participants wishing to appear remotely must file a motion pursuant to Fla. R. Crim. P. 3.116(c) at least 10 days before the hearing. Parties must indicate the position of the opposing party in the motion. The party opposing may file a response within 5 days.

Docket Sounding – Physical presence of both the Defendant and counsel is required because evidentiary issues, along with other topics, will be addressed.